FOR THE ASSOCIATE COMMISSIONER, EXAMINATIONS

Terrance M. O'Reilly, Director
Administrative Appeals Office

DISCUSSION: The application was denied by the District Director, Boston, Massachusetts, and is now before the Associate Commissioner for Examinations on appeal. The appeal will be dismissed.

The applicant was born on May 14, 1978, in Campo Grande, Brazil. The applicant's father, [REDACTED], was born in the United States in February 1953 but failed to meet the physical presence requirement necessary to transmit citizenship to the applicant. The applicant's mother, [REDACTED], was born in Brazil and never had a claim to United States citizenship. The applicant's parents married each other in July 1975. The applicant is seeking a certificate of citizenship under § 322 of the Immigration and Nationality Act (the Act), 8 U.S.C. 1433.

At the time the application was filed it did not contain the applicant's birth certificate. According to the father's testimony at that time, the applicant was born on May 14, 1978 and not May 14, 1988 as indicated on the application. A copy of the applicant's birth certificate was submitted on appeal reflecting a May 14, 1978 date of birth.

The district director reviewed the record and concluded that the applicant had failed to establish she has satisfied all of the requirements prior to her 18th birthday and denied the application accordingly.

On appeal, the applicant's grandmother states that they acted in good faith and followed instructions given by the consulate. She states that the mishandling of the documents by the consulate in Rio De Janeiro and possible San paulo prevented them from making the application before the applicant's 18th birthday. The applicant's grandmother then describes the events as they occurred.

Section 322 CHILD BORN OUTSIDE THE UNITED STATES; APPLICATION FOR CERTIFICATE OF CITIZENSHIP REQUIREMENTS

(a) APPLICATION OF CITIZEN PARENTS: REQUIREMENTS.-A parent who is a citizen of the United States may apply to the Attorney General for a certificate of citizenship on behalf of a child born outside the United States. The Attorney General shall issue such a certificate of citizenship upon proof to the satisfaction of the Attorney General that the following conditions have been fulfilled:

(1) At least one parent is a citizen of the United States, whether by birth or naturalization.

(2) The child is physically present in the United States pursuant to a lawful admission.

(3) The child is under the age of 18 years and in the legal custody of the citizen parent.

(4) If the citizen parent is an adoptive parent of the child, the child was adopted by the citizen parent before the child reached the age of 16 years and the child meets the requirements for being a child under subparagraph (E) or (F) of § 101(b)(1).

(5) If the citizen parent has not been physically present in the United States or its outlying possessions for a period or periods totaling not less than 5 years, at least 2 of which were after attaining the age of 14 years-

(A) The child is residing permanently in the United States with the citizen parent, pursuant to a lawful admission for permanent residence, or

(B) A citizen parent of the citizen parent has been physically present in the United States or its outlying possessions for a period or periods totaling not less than 5 years, at least 2 of which were after attaining the age of 14 years.

(b) ATTAINMENT OF CITIZENSHIP STATUS; RECEIPT OF CERTIFICATE.- Upon approval of the application (which may be filed abroad) and, except as provided in the last sentence of § 337(a), upon taking and subscribing before an officer of the Service within the United States to the oath of allegiance required by this Act of an applicant for naturalization, the child shall become a citizen of the United States and shall be furnished by the Attorney General with a certificate of citizenship.

The record reflects that the applicant's grandmother, [REDACTED] was born in the United States in September 1926 and has satisfied the physical presence requirements.

8 C.F.R. 322.2(a) provides that to be eligible for naturalization under § 322 of the Act, a child on whose behalf an application for naturalization has been filed by a parent who is, at the time of filing, a citizen of the United States, must:

(1) Be unmarried and under 18 years of age, both at the time of application and at the time of admission to citizenship;

(2) Be physically present in the United States pursuant to a lawful admission, and in the legal custody of the applying citizen parent;

(3) Be a person of good moral character, attached to the principles of the Constitution of the United States, and favorably disposed toward the good order and happiness of the United States; a child under the age of 14 will generally be presumed to satisfy this requirement;

(4) Comply with other requirements for naturalization as provided in the Act.... (Emphasis supplied.)

8 C.F.R. 341.2(c) provides that the burden of proof shall be on the claimant to establish the claimed citizenship by a preponderance of the evidence. The applicant has failed to establish that she fulfilled all the requirements prior to her 18th birthday and the appeal will be dismissed.

This decision is without prejudice to the applicant's seeking U.S. citizenship through normal naturalization procedures by filing an Application for Naturalization on Form N-400 with a Service office having jurisdiction over her residence.

ORDER: The appeal is dismissed.
